“A FIRM FOUNDATION”

(Matthew 7:24-29)

Today we conclude our message series from the Sermon on the Mount. Each of us lives our life based on some foundation, some worldview, some set of values. What are you building your life on? Will it last? Is it eternal? Is it from God?

“In the beginning you laid the foundations of the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands” (Psalm 102:25, NIV).

“So this is what the Sovereign LORD says: See, I lay a stone in Zion, a tested stone, a precious cornerstone for a sure foundation; the one who trusts will never be dismayed” (Isaiah 28:16, NIV).

“For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ” (1 Corinthians 3:11, NIV).

“In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life” (1 Timothy 6:19, NIV).

“But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well” (Matthew 6:33, NASB).
