“SPIRITUAL LEADERSHIP”

(Titus 1:1-9)

In our message today, the Apostle Paul gives direction to Titus regarding the qualities of a spiritual leader. Leadership is influence and all of us exercise our influence in our circles of relationship. Each of us, as followers of Christ, should make every effort to grow in our influence for the Savior.

(Titus 1:1-9)

“For there are many who are insubordinate, empty talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision party. They must be silenced, since they are upsetting whole families by teaching for shameful gain what they ought not to teach” (Titus 1:10-11, ESV).

“As for a person who stirs up division, after warning him once and then twice, have nothing more to do with him, knowing that such a person is warped and sinful; he is self-condemned” (Titus 3:10-11, ESV).

“He must hold firm to the trustworthy word as taught, so that he may be able to give instruction in sound doctrine and also to rebuke those who contradict it” (Titus 1:9, ESV).
