
❖SERMON NOTES❖

Sunday, June 19, 2016

“THE RIPPLE EFFECT”

(1 Thessalonians 1:2-3)

Today we finish our Family Matters series by looking at the church family. God has brought us together for a common purpose: to love Him, to love each other, and to share His love with the world. It's not an accident that God has placed us in this church, in this community, at this time. God's plan is to use our church to have a powerful impact on our community.

How can one church change a community?

_____ that leads to _____

James 2:17-18

Galatians 5:6

1 Corinthians 15:10

_____ that leads to _____

Matthew 9:36

1 John 4:10

John 15:12

_____ that leads to _____

Romans 5:2-4

Romans 8:25

James 1:2-3

❖SERMON NOTES❖

Sunday, June 19, 2016

“THE RIPPLE EFFECT”

(1 Thessalonians 1:2-3)

Today we finish our Family Matters series by looking at the church family. God has brought us together for a common purpose: to love Him, to love each other, and to share His love with the world. It's not an accident that God has placed us in this church, in this community, at this time. God's plan is to use our church to have a powerful impact on our community.

How can one church change a community?

Faith that leads to action

James 2:17-18

Galatians 5:6

1 Corinthians 15:10

Love that leads to compassion

Matthew 9:36

1 John 4:10

John 15:12

Hope that leads to endurance

Romans 5:2-4

Romans 8:25

James 1:2-3