
❖SERMON NOTES❖

Sunday, July 16, 2017

“THE ‘WOULD-BE’ FOLLOWER”

(Luke 9:57-62)

One of the hardest parts of being a follower of Jesus is taking the first step. So much is competing for our hearts and minds that it keeps some people from saying yes to Jesus. It's important for us to know what saying yes to Jesus means for us. Are you willing to move from a “would be” follower to taking the first step?

Three questions all “would-be” followers have to answer:

1. Will you _____ to live Jesus' way?

(Key word: _____)

Luke 9:23; 2 Corinthians 5:14-15

2. Will you _____ your priorities?

(Key word: _____)

Romans 12:2; Ephesians 4:22-24

3. Will you _____ Jesus above all things?

(Key word: _____)

Hebrews 12:1-2; 1 Timothy 6:11-12

❖SERMON NOTES❖

Sunday, July 16, 2017

“THE ‘WOULD-BE’ FOLLOWER”

(Luke 9:57-62)

One of the hardest parts of being a follower of Jesus is taking the first step. So much is competing for our hearts and minds that it keeps some people from saying yes to Jesus. It's important for us to know what saying yes to Jesus means for us. Are you willing to move from a “would be” follower to taking the first step?

Three questions all “would-be” followers have to answer:

1. Will you choose to live Jesus' way?

(Key word: sacrifice)

Luke 9:23; 2 Corinthians 5:14-15

2. Will you change your priorities?

(Key word: transformation)

Romans 12:2; Ephesians 4:22-24

3. Will you cherish Jesus above all things?

(Key word: perseverance)

Hebrews 12:1-2; 1 Timothy 6:11-12