
❖SERMON NOTES❖

Sunday, November 18, 2018

“FORGOTTEN GOD”

(Judges 2:7-10)

What’s the quickest way to forget God? Start living like He doesn’t exist or like He doesn’t really matter. The temptation for families is to view God as a “nice helper” or “available in case of an emergency.” When we allow God to get pushed out because of “life” then He becomes an afterthought, an “if we have time” relationship, or worse yet, He becomes forgotten altogether.

A family (and a church) that lives so that this generation and the next knows and experiences God...

_____ the name of Jesus.

Deuteronomy 6:4-9; Deuteronomy 6:20-25; Romans 1:16

_____ Jesus is King.

1 Thessalonians 4:7; Galatians 2:19-20; John 6:38

_____ to follow Jesus.

Matthew 28:19-20; 2 Timothy 2:2; 1 Corinthians 11:1

❖ SERMON NOTES ❖

November 18, 2018

“FORGOTTEN GOD”

(Judges 2:7-10)

What’s the quickest way to forget God? Start living like He doesn’t exist or like He doesn’t really matter. The temptation for families is to view God as a “nice helper” or “available in case of an emergency.” When we allow God to get pushed out because of “life” then He becomes an afterthought, an “if we have time” relationship, or worse yet, He becomes forgotten altogether.

A family (and a church) that lives so that this generation and the next knows and experiences God...

Speaks the name of Jesus.

Deuteronomy 6:4-9; Deuteronomy 6:20-25; Romans 1:16

Live like Jesus is King.

1 Thessalonians 4:7; Galatians 2:19-20; John 6:38

Empowers others to follow Jesus.

Matthew 28:19-20; 2 Timothy 2:2; 1 Corinthians 11:1