Prayer

Teach Your Child to Talk to God

One of the greatest things you can do is to help your child develop a relationship with God through prayer. Prayer is how we communicate with and connect to our Heavenly Father. Nurture your child's faith by praying together as a family and by guiding them in the practice of praying individually.

Be an Example

Allow your child to see and hear you pray on a regular basis. Take time to stop and give thanks in times when God blesses you or answers a prayer. Model prayer in times of difficulty or when seeking wisdom for important decisions. Pray for those in your family and others you know are in need.

Jump Start Prayers

Use these ideas to help start prayer time with your child.

- Sentence Prayers: Take turns allowing each person who is comfortable doing so to pray a very short, one sentence prayer. It can be as simple as "Please heal Uncle Paul." "Thank you for giving Troy a new friend." or "I'm sorry for losing my temper with everyone earlier today."
 - Fill-in-the-Blank Prayers: Use pre-written language to guide and focus prayer times such as the following starter lines:
 - God, I love you because...
 - Thank you God for...
 - God, please help...
 - God, I'm sorry for...

Prayer Tools and Ideas

- Prayer Board: Keep a dry erase board or the calendar included with this kit in a high traffic area of your home and use it to note items the family is praying for together.
- Prayer Journal: Consider purchasing a journal for your child to start recording prayers and how God answers them.
- Mirror prayers: Using a dry erase marker, write a list of prayer concerns on the child's bathroom mirror so he or she remembers to pause and pray after brushing teeth.

Family Routine

Making prayer a regular part of your family culture will help make it a normal part of your child's life. Consider incorporating some of the following in your family routine.

- Mealttime: Briefly give thanks before you eat, then wait until everyone has finished to have a longer time of prayer together.
 - Bedtime: The first person in the family to go to bed (usually the youngest) alerts everyone else that it is time for an end-of-day prayer together.
 - Drive time: As you start the engine, pause for a brief prayer together asking God to go with you and invite everyone to pray a sentence prayer for any concern about the upcoming activities of the day. This is a great routine to begin as you drive to school in the morning.
 - Walks: Taking a walk together is the ideal time to pray. Or pause at the end to pray about the matters discussed during your walk.

PRAYER CALENDAR

S M T W T F S

My Home's Top Prayer Requests

List family members and write in their prayer requests.

◀ Mark your calendar each time you pray together.

Make a commitment to be a 7•5•2 home!

7 – Pray seven days a week individually for your spouse, kids, grandkids, parents, siblings, etc.

5 – Pray five times a week (including meals & bedtime) as a family.

2 – Pray at least two times a week with your spouse.

Suggestions for using your Prayer Calendar:

1. Place your Prayer Calendar on your fridge or in some other central location of your home.
2. Have each family member use a specific color marker or sticker to mark their 7's of individual prayer time. Write out a 5 or use a sticker to mark your times of praying together as a family. Write out a 2 or a different specific sticker to mark your times of praying together as a couple.
3. Use the "My Home's Top Prayer Requests" for each family member to share their prayer requests that they would like the family to pray for.
4. Celebrate at the end of each week and talk about the prayers that God has answered in the week.
5. For the family prayer, give each family member a certain prayer day that they can decide when you will pray, where you will pray, and how you will pray. Ex: Mom's day is on Monday and she has decided that the family will go on a prayer walk after dinner; or five-year-old Jessie's day is Thursday and she wants to have prayer together during breakfast.
6. Use this simple prayer prompting to jumpstart your family prayer times. Have an adult or teen start the following statements and then have each member take turns filling in the blank:
 - ☐ God, I love you because...
 - ☐ Thank you God for...
 - ☐ God, please help...
 - ☐ God, I am sorry for...

Prayer@Home Action Plan

1. Commit To Pray

Begin by committing to prayer@home as a habit using the 7-5-2 plan . . .

- 7 – Pray seven days a week individually for your spouse, kids, grandkids, parents, siblings, etc.
- 5 – Pray five times a week (including meals & bedtime) as a family.
- 2 – Pray at least two times a week with your spouse.

2. Select A Time

Note the days and “piggy back” time slots for prayer as a couple and/or family.

Examples:

Couple: Pray for 10 minutes on Tuesday and Thursday evenings as a piggy back at the end of our walk together

Family: Monday and Thursday prayer at the end of dinner and each evening we will use the “First to Bed” strategy for bedtime prayer.

Our @home prayer days will be: (circle days)

Sunday • Monday • Tuesday • Wednesday • Thursday • Friday • Saturday

Our “piggy back” times will be:

3. Choose A Strategy

Jot down your thoughts on how to best guide the content of family prayers.

Examples:

Couple: We will use the “Fill-in-the-blank” guide to focus our prayers.

Family: We will use “High/Low” at dinner and sentence prayers at bedtime.

We will use the following strategies:

4. Make Preparations

Unless you begin your prayer@home routine in the next five days the likelihood of following through is slim. Take out your schedule now and schedule one hour in which you will gather, purchase, prepare or display anything needed to implement the ideas listed above.

List the preparation steps you need to take:

1. _____
2. _____

Prayer@Home Guide

Becoming Intentional About Family Prayer

Why pray at home?

Studies have shown that the simple routine of praying together at home makes it much more likely you will . . .

- Build a life-long, thriving marriage
- Strengthen the relationship with your children and teens
- Nurture strong faith in the hearts of your children and teens
- Reduce the level of tension in your home
- Increase marital trust, respect and intimacy

Why don't we pray at home?

Check each of the following common reasons that apply in our situation.

- ☐ I feel awkward praying out loud with others – even my family.
- ☐ Our family schedule is so hectic we never seem to get to it.
- ☐ There is relational tension, so we don't want to pray together.
- ☐ I think my spouse would resist or dismiss the idea.

The following pages contain ideas to help you overcome each of these obstacles to begin a prayer@home routine in your family.

Overcoming Obstacles

Tips as you encounter obstacles to the prayer@home habit:

- Schedule: Just like any other important event, prayer@home needs to be included on the schedule and protected. If you use a calendar or PDA, consider creating an appointment with the family several times per week — even if that appointment is at dinner, before bed, etc.
- Travel: Even when on the road, you can participate in family prayer by phone. You might also consider sending a text message or email saying “I am praying this for you right now. . .”
- Tension: Confession (acknowledging one’s failures) in prayer can make it easier to resolve tension as family members humble themselves before God in the hearing of one another.
- Partial Family Prayer: If a spouse or child is unwilling to participate in group prayer, the rest of the family can still enjoy and benefit from the experience. Don’t allow their lack of participation to create tension. Simply do what you can as you are able without making them feel awkward or isolated.
- The Nudge: Give everyone permission to “nudge” one another back on track during the inevitable seasons when your prayer routine wanes. Be open to reminders from your wife, husband or child and resist the temptation to become defensive or defeated.

Jump Start Prayers

Helpful ways to jump start a prayer routine in your home:

- Silent Prayers: The easiest way to start family prayer is praying silently together. Agree on a prayer list, join hands and then bow quietly. As you become more comfortable with the process, add sentence prayers to your routine.
- Sentence Prayers: Take turns allowing each person who is comfortable doing so to pray a very short, one sentence prayer like “Please heal Uncle Paul.” Or “Thank you for giving Troy a new friend.” Or “I’m sorry for losing my temper with everyone earlier today.”
- High/Low Prayers: Have each person quickly share the high point and low point of their day. Then hold hands and give thanks for the high and ask for help with the low.
- Fill-in-the-Blank Prayers: Use pre-written language to guide and focus family prayer times. For example, the following starter lines can be used. . .
God, I love you because. . .
Thank you God for. . .
God, please help. . .
God, I’m sorry for. . .

Prayer Reminder Tools

Ideas to make your prayer routine easier and more meaningful:

- Prayer Board: Buy a dry erase board to keep near the dinner table or on the bathroom mirror and use it to keep track of items the family is praying together.
- Recipe Prayer Cards: Keep a recipe box and cards on the table so that when concerns are discussed they can be captured on a card. You might want to create a section for answered prayers to keep as a reminder of God’s goodness.
- Thanksgiving Jar: Keep a large mason jar with a stack of paper slips in a visible location to write down and keep reminders of answered prayer throughout the year. On Thanksgiving Day, empty the jar to reflect upon and give thanks for God’s goodness the prior months.
- Family Prayer Journal: Keep a journal and pencil someplace in the house where any family member can record written prayers. Other family members can pick up the journal during their own prayer time and join their spouse, child or parent praying for the same concerns.
- Prayer Card Basket: Rather than throw away Christmas & birthday cards, thank you notes, or party invitations received during the year, place them in a basket. Remove one each meal time as a reminder to pray for that person or family.

Piggy Back Strategies

Existing family activities or special occasions to leverage for prayer:

- Meal time: Briefly give thanks for the food before you eat, then wait until everyone has eaten to have an extended family time of prayer.
- Bedtime: The first person in the family to go to bed (usually the youngest) alerts everyone else that it is time for the end of day prayer together.
- Wake up: Before the first person heads out the door, pray together about the upcoming activities of the day.
- Drive time: As you start the engine, pause for a brief prayer together asking God to go with you and invite everyone to pray a sentence prayer for any concern.
- Special occasions: Anniversaries, birthdays, first day of school, first date, school test, job interview, or trip to camp can trigger special occasion prayers — especially with teens who encounter many “firsts” to lift before the Lord together.
- Walks: Taking a walk together is the ideal time to pray — or pause at the end to pray about the matters that came up during your walk.
- Mirror prayers: Using a dry erase marker, write a list of prayer concerns on the child’s bathroom mirror so they remember to pause and pray after brushing teeth.

What To Say

For those who would feel more comfortable with pre-scripted guidance, feel free to pray aloud together using the following language. . .

• PRAYING FOR PERSPECTIVE:

Almighty God, we recognize that you are our creator and provider. We also acknowledge we are weak and need you. Help us depend on you today as we. . . (Describe specific activities tied to work, school, challenges, etc.)

• CONFESSION PRAYER:

Lord, you have promised to forgive those who confess their sins. We come before you in humility today acknowledging our own unworthiness and our many failures. (Pause as each person silently confesses his/her own sins and failures) Now we ask that you give us the courage to apologize and forgive each other when needed to keep harmony in this home.

• REQUEST PRAYER:

Father, you are the giver of all good gifts. We ask for your goodness today as we lift the following requests to you. . . (Take turns offering one sentence prayers for each request)

• THE LORD’S PRAYER:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.

• Insert sentence prayers about family needs/concerns

Forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

• Pause as each person silently confesses

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

• Insert sentence prayers about fears, worries, temptations, etc.

Amen.

Praying With Your Kids

Purpose

To make it easy to launch the habit of praying with your kids

Advance Preparation

Spend a few minutes reviewing the reverse side and thinking through the strategy that will work best for you.

Impact

Praying with your child will strengthen your relationship with them, nurture strong faith within them and reduce the level of tension in your home. As pastor and author Will Davis Jr. put it “There’s something blessed about a child who the last thing they hear every night is the sound of their parents praying over them.” Start the routine in your home tonight.

Jump Start Prayers

Helpful ways to jump start a prayer routine with your children.

- ☐ Silent Prayers: If you are uncomfortable praying out loud, start by holding your child’s hand or resting your hand on his or her arm while offering silent prayers.
- ☐ Sentence Prayers: Take turns voicing very short, one sentence prayers like “Please heal Uncle Paul.” Or “Thank you for giving Troy a new friend.” Or “I’m sorry for losing my temper with everyone earlier today.”
- ☐ High/Low Prayers: Have the child describe a high point and low point of their day. Then hold hands and give thanks for the high and ask for help with the low.
- ☐ Fill-in-the-Blank Prayers: Use pre-written language to guide and focus your prayer time. Use starter lines such as “God, I love you because ____” or “God, please help ____” or “God, I’m sorry for ____”
- ☐ Blessing Prayers: Voice a short prayer of blessing as you gently touch your child such as the following scripture:

May the LORD bless you and keep you; the LORD make his face shine on you and be gracious to you; the LORD turn his face toward you and give you peace. (Numbers 6:24-26)
